Join us Saturday, September 23, 2017 for a black-tie evening of celebration, dinner, and dancing on Wolf Trap's magnificent Filene Center stage – one of the largest stages in America. A prominent cross-section of local and national leaders attend the black tie Wolf Trap Ball party, including members of the Diplomatic Corps, the President's Cabinet, the U.S. Congress, state and local governments, media and philanthropic leaders, and executives from national and international businesses.

Your support of the Wolf Trap Ball ensures that Wolf Trap Foundation, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, can continue to offer a wide variety of performance and education programs for people of all ages. Individual reservations start at $750, and table sponsorships range from $10,000 to $100,000. Please see the following pages for details and a commitment form. For more information or to RSVP online, please visit wolftrap.org/ball or call 703.255.4030.

ABOUT WOLF TRAP FOUNDATION

For more than 45 years, Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts has distinguished itself as an artistic, educational, and economic resource for the Washington, D.C. region and beyond. More than 400,000 people flock to its three unique venues every year to enjoy a vast array of high-quality entertainment. Wolf Trap's programming includes esteemed classical music, operas, musical theatre, dance and comedy programs, as well as pop, rock, indie, jazz, country, and R&B music. Wolf Trap has commissioned more than 70 new works, and Wolf Trap Opera is renowned for its outstanding professional training and lush performances.

WOLF TRAP IN THE COMMUNITY

Wolf Trap Foundation provides educational opportunities to more than 78,000 children and teachers annually, and expands access to the arts by providing nearly 8,000 free tickets to families and area organizations that serve disabled or underserved children and adults. The Wolf Trap Institute and its arts integrated strategies have proven successful in promoting school readiness among children who live in economically disadvantaged circumstances. The Institute's Early Childhood STEM Learning Through the Arts program has drawn national attention for its use of the arts to teach math and science fundamentals to preschool and kindergarten students. The effectiveness of this program in Fairfax County was the subject of an extensive U.S. Department of Education funded research study. In addition, Wolf Trap's popular and highly competitive internship program provides hands-on training in arts management for college students and recent graduates.

For additional information and to confirm your Ball sponsorship, please email Special Events Director Kara Kurtz at karak@wolftrap.org. We will confirm your reservation and communicate further details by email.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
