

WOLF TRAP UNCORKED

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 2021

JOIN US ONLINE FOR A NIGHT OF VOICES AND VINO IN SUPPORT OF WOLF TRAP FOUNDATION

A typical wine tasting is an exploration using senses of sight, smell, taste, and touch. Only one is missing: sound. WOLF TRAP UNCORKED features three curated wines paired with stunning performances by talented Wolf Trap Opera alumni, specifically chosen to highlight the parallels in both voice and wine.

Your sommelier for the evening, Matt Burns, will lead guests live through wine tastings and arias. Matt is an internationally acclaimed bass-baritone with a passion for wine, and his tasting concerts explore how perfectly the language of wine tasting relates to the classical voice.

ABOUT YOUR SUPPORT

Your participation supports Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts, which for 50 years has distinguished itself as an artistic, educational, and economic resource for the Washington, DC region and beyond. In a normal year, more than 400,000 people flock to its three unique venues to enjoy a vast array of exceptional entertainment. Wolf Trap's programming includes esteemed classical music, opera, musical theatre, dance, and comedy performances, as well as pop, rock, indie, jazz, country, R&B music, and more. Wolf Trap expands access to the arts by providing nearly 8,000 free tickets to families, under-served children and adults, and people with disabilities.

Beyond its stages, Wolf Trap Foundation provides educational opportunities to nearly 100,000 children and teachers annually in the DC area and across the nation in 28 states. Wolf Trap Institute for Early Learning has proven successful in promoting school readiness among children who live in economically disadvantaged circumstances, and has drawn national attention for its use of the arts to teach math and science fundamentals to preschool and kindergarten students. In addition, Wolf Trap's popular and highly competitive internship program provides hands-on training in arts management for college students and recent graduates.
