A distinguished artistic, educational, and cultural resource for the nation, Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts continues to grow thanks to philanthropy. Over the last 51 years, more than 15 million people have flocked to our three unique venues to enjoy an array of high-quality entertainment and artistry.

Inclusivity and accessibility are core values of Wolf Trap. Every year, the Foundation provides educational opportunities to nearly 100,000 children and teachers locally and across the country, and nearly 8,000 free tickets to families, under-served communities, and people with disabilities. Wolf Trap Institute and its arts-integrated approach increases school readiness among children who live in economically disadvantaged circumstances. Wolf Trap's Early Learning Through the Arts program draws national attention for its use of the arts to teach math and science fundamentals to preschool and kindergarten students.

Thank you for supporting the treasured, growing, cultural, natural, and artistic resource that is Wolf Trap!
